ABRAHAM HORWITZ AWARD FOR LEADERSHIP IN INTER-AMERICAN HEALTH, 2006

1. The Director of the Pan American Sanitary Bureau (PASB) and the Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Pan American Health and Education Foundation are pleased to announce that the 2006 Abraham Horwitz Award for Leadership in Inter-American Health will be presented during the 47th Directing Council of the Pan American Health Organization (PAHO) to Dr. James Steele of the United States of America. The Award recognizes and stimulates excellence and leadership in health among persons working in the Americas and persons who produce ideas and work of regional significance.
2. The Foundation is an independent philanthropic organization that works in partnership with PAHO/WHO to combat disease, lengthen life, improve health care services, foster health research, and enhance the capacities of health care workers in the Americas through grant-making and direct program implementation. It promotes philanthropy as a core social value. The Foundation also supports the education and training of physicians and allied health workers through the publication of medical textbooks and continuing education materials. Its fund-raising efforts and programs are making a difference in the lives of the peoples of Latin America and the Caribbean. A 16-member independent Board of Trustees governs the Foundation.
3. Winners of the Abraham Horwitz Award have had outstanding lifetime careers in medicine and/or public health, demonstrating impact on the lives and health of the peoples of Latin America and the Caribbean. They are selected by a committee that consists of five members, including two designated by the Director of PASB and three selected by the Foundation's Board of Trustees. Nominations are received from ministers of health, leaders in health worldwide, PAHO staff members, collaborating partners, and friends of PAHO and the Foundation.
