

World Antibiotic Awareness Week 2017
Appropriate use of antibiotics in sepsis. Timely action that saves lives.
Webinar, 14 November 2017

Agenda

Day: 14 November 2017

Time: 11 – 12:30 EST

Room: PAHO Headquarters – Room C

Technical details: WebEx platform. ENG-SPA interpretation. Facebook live before the WebEx.

Light lunch / refreshments to be offered.

Time	Topic	Speaker
11:00	Welcome remarks – Introduction and objectives.	Dr. Francisco Becerra (PAHO/WHO Assistant Director) (recorded video)
11:10	Surviving sepsis: a vital experience	Patient representative Dr. Daniel Godinez, Belize.
11:25	Challenges for managing sepsis in Latin America Focus on access and timely use of appropriate antibiotics, including resistance patterns. Special focus on pediatric population, risk groups.	Dr. Flavia Machado, Instituto Latino Americano de Sepsis LASI, Brasil.
11:40	Challenges for managing sepsis in Caribbean Countries Focus on access and timely use of appropriate antibiotics, including resistance patterns. Special focus on pediatric population, risk groups.	Dr. Jorge L. Hidalgo, Professor of Critical Care. Chief, Division of Critical Care. Karl Heusner Memorial Hospital. Belize.
11:55	U.S. Sepsis Epidemiology and Promotion of Appropriate Antibiotic Use <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Current U.S. sepsis epidemiology • Current U.S. regulatory and clinical guidelines for sepsis management • CDC and partner educational efforts to promote both appropriate antibiotic use and stewardship in sepsis 	Dr. Raymund B. Dantes (CDC/ United States)
12:10	Q&A	Moderator
12:25	Conclusions - Closure	Niranjan “Tex” Kissoon, Global Sepsis Alliance