

RecommendationAzure Portal ViewImprove MySQL connection latency

Our internal telemetry indicates that your application connecting to MySQL server may not be managing connections efficiently. This may result in higher application latency. To improve connection latency, we recommend that you enable connection redirection. This can be done by enabling the connection redirection feature of the PHP driver.

Impacted Resources

Subscription	Impacted Resources	Recommended action
Microsoft Azure Enterprise (01ee056a-bc02-40e8-9532-fdfcdcab5115)	azrcmumysqlsrv	- Configure the redirect_enabled parameter to ON to allow connections with redirection mode Connect to Azure Database for MySQL with redirection